Brush Alumni Wall of Achievement

The purpose of the Brush Alumni Association's Wall of Achievement is to recognize and honor graduates of Charles F. Brush High School who have displayed outstanding achievement in areas such as leadership, service to the community, service to Brush High School, humanitarianism, creativity, courage, and careers which have benefited others. Brush High School staff members who may not have graduated from the high school may also be honored. Inductees are typically honored at a banquet held in November. Please consider nominating a graduate you feel should be recognized. A nomination form can be found at the following website: <https://www.sel.k12.oh.us/WallofAchievement.aspx>
